

DEXTER-RUSSELL,
INC. IS THE LARGEST
MANUFACTURER OF
PROFESSIONAL CUTLERY IN THE UNITED STATES.

Throughout our long and rich history, we have maintained a tradition of excellence in both materials and workmanship. Our company is the proud successor to the two oldest American cutlery manufacturers: the Harrington Cutlery Company and the John Russell Cutlery Company.

As important as quality materials and proper heat treatment are, proper edge geometry is crucial to the manufacture of professional quality cutlery. Precision grinding creates the proper edge profile for the task at hand with accuracy and consistency.

Although some knives such as the French cook's knife and cook's style paring knife are versatile tools in every kitchen, there are certain tasks that call for specialty knives. With the broadest product line available, you can be sure that Dexter-Russell has the right knife for every kitchen task.
